Hi [Client Name],

The holidays bring so much joy! MetalPrints only amplify that feeling. 😊

MetalPrints infuse your images directly into specially coated aluminum, creating colors that pop while being completely waterproof and scratch resistant. Perfect when your home becomes the gathering place for all those festive celebrations.

These prints maintain their color and clarity for decades, no matter what the season throws at them. No glass to worry about during parties, no frames to dust between gatherings, just beautiful photos that can handle all the holiday excitement while keeping your memories looking stunning.

Ready to see which of your session photos would look amazing on Metal? They're exactly what your holiday decorating needs in order to shine through every celebration.

Best,
[Your Name]
